U.S.—Teutonic War News

The commander of the armed guard of an American merchantman has reported to the navy department at Washington that his crew sank a submarine after the Germans had made an unsuccessful attempt to sink the ship.

Important of the landing of foreign officers, a correspondent has been permitted to visit the American troops at their latitudes in England. They were found encamped in a valley with British officers and squads of noncommissioned officers in charge of training them.

More than 2,000 training camp students at Fort Sheridan, Ill., were made non-commissioned officers in the new American national army.

The regular army is at full strength.

When recruiting began Thursday only 5,000 replacements were needed to make the total Illinois branch 35,000; the authority's strength. Since April over 15,000 men have been made up, said a division from Washington.

United States agents at Seattle, Wash., uncovered a gigantic plot to break down the selective service armament by engineering wholesale exemptions. Propaganda is being handled to men called for physical examination by immigrants to American war measures. It is charged.

Law of exemption boards will be in full charge of assembling the men called in the colors September 1, says a statement issued at Washington. The civilian control of the men will continue in the time they march through the ranks of the battalions and report to the commandants.

Revised regulations to govern physical examination of men registered under the selective draft were issued at Washington by Surgeon General Gandy, who is the chief of the bureau of information of local boards. The changes deal for the most part with questions of proportionate weight and height, but may result in the recall of some men rejected heretofore on physical grounds.

Four Americans were among those lost on the British steamer Belgian Prince which was sunk July 31 by a German submarine. The submarine submerged while the men were on the deck. The Americans who lost their lives were William Criss, James Shee, Detroit, Mich.; Thomas Gilmore, Meridian, Miss.; Bea Cain, negro.

The war tax bill finally revised to meet latest estimates, was favorably reported by the senate finance committee at Washington. It proposes to raise $2,000,000,000 by taxation.

Domestic

Heads of union labor called out 1,000 men employed at Brooklyn navy yard. Last week the men employed on construction work at the Mineola aviation grounds were called out.

The indicated corn yield this year, according to the August government crop report, is 3,031,000,000 bushels, a larger crop than was ever raised in a single year before. The winter wheat yield is estimated at 47,000,000 bushels. The promise for the whole nation is 63,000,000,000. The oats crop is a record-breaker. It is estimated at 1,450,000,000. The indicated yield of white potatoes is 407,000,000 bushels, compared with 285,000,000 last year.

Provision to protect harvesting from shortage of hands due to the mobilization of the national army has been made by the government at Washington in regulations now going out to district exemption boards. Men needed in the fields to complete harvesting will be permitted to remain at work since therefor for them passes, when they will join the colors.

Thomas D. Jones, Chicago business man and capitalist, was appointed a member of the exports administrative board at Washington, succeeding Edward S. Murray, who became chairman of the shipping board.

Four persons were reported killed, including a woman, and three negroes severely injured when a shell from a submarine mine which was being used in target practice by student officers of the Fort McPherson (Ga.) gunners' training camp missed its mark and exploded.

Bloody strike in the street car strike at Lima, O. Three men were shot in a clash between strike sympathizers and armed guards on the city cars of the Ohio Electric Railway company. Two street cars were burned during the battle. Police dispersed a crowd of 5,000 persons.

Distillers at Peoria, Ill., agreed to close their plants when they heard that the food bill had been passed. The distillers are expected to continue operating at capacity—250,000 gallons of whisky a day—until the "old" goes on.

American citizen soldiers may vote at the fall elections if their respective states establish voting machinery at the camps, says a statement issued by Provost Marshal Crowder at Washington.

Over 200 prisoners, handicapped in three courts in the federal building at Chicago, while awaiting arraignment, secured little sympathy from United States commissioners. The cases were disposed of at the rate of about five minutes to a case.

The Illinois state council of national defense at Chicago recommended to Governor Lowden that the state of Illinois take the lead in the movement and operate them during the war. It further called the councils of defense of the states of Indiana, Michigan, Wisconsin, Iowa, Ohio and other states to meet in Chicago August 16, to consider the feasibility of joint action by all co-producing states to reduce the price of coal.

Washington

Creation of a labor adjustment commission of three representatives each of the government, employers and labor was officially announced at Washington. It is designed to have inquiries had over all labor disputes concerning wages or employment conditions on government contracts.

The American steamship Navajo has been burned at sea, according to cables reaching the navy department at Washington. The entire crew and naval armed guard were rescued and have been landed at an unnamed port.

Overgridding of the $300,000,000 issue of short-term treasury certificates of indebtedness, Secretary McAdoo announced at Washington, was $61,026,000, more than 20 per cent.

The Senate at Washington confirmed the nomination of Rainbridge Colby of New York to be a member of the government shipping board.

It was announced at Washington that the treasury's offer of $300,000,000 in certificates of indebtedness during November 15, first financing under the projected second offering of liberty bonds, was largely oversubscribed when subscriptions closed.

Another merchantman has sunk a submarine, but because of the fate of Capt. Charles Fryatt of the British steamer Brussels, who was executed, the name of the vessel and its commander are kept secret.

Spanish troops broke into the lines of the German crown prince on the Chambery front at three places, inflicting losses on the Germans and taking back prisoners. It was announced officially by the war department at Paris.

Official announcement was made at the admiralty at London that Admiral Sir Cecil Burney, second sea lord, had been replaced by Vice Admiral Sir Roselyn-Wenys.

Another vice-chairman of the naval commission succeeded Sir Eric Campbell Geddes, the new first lord of the admiralty, as controller of naval construction.

Foreign

The Canadian conscription bill successfully passed its last legislative stage when it received third reading in the senate at Ottawa, Ont. It becomes effective after the formalities of royal assent and government proclamation.

Eight thousand miners attended a mass meeting at Essen, Germany, for the discussion of coal production, food and wages. The meeting developed into an impressive demonstration in favor of peace by agreement and democratic reforms.

Lawyers of Brussels have unanimously elected Adolphe Meix, the former burmester of Brussels, impounded by Germans, president of the bar association, according to news received at Havre.

Acting President Fung Kwo-Chang of China approved the unanimous decision reached at a special meeting of the Chinese cabinet of Peking to declare war on Germany and Austria-Hungary.

Demanding an increase of 30 per cent in wages, 10,000 workmen employed at the Mitsubishi shipbuilding yards at Nagasaki, Japan, went out on strike. The men claim they should share in the nation's prosperity.

There was a slight increase in the loss of British merchant vessels by submarines or mines during the last week, according to the official summary issued at London. Twenty-four British vessels of more than 1,000 tons and two vessels of less than 1,000 tons were sunk last week.

Four persons were reported killed, including a woman, and three negroes severely injured when a shell from a submarine mine which was being used in target practice by student officers of the Fort McPherson (Ga.) gunners' training camp missed its mark and exploded.

Whose Business?

That whiskey and money flowed freely in this country Saturday no one will deny. There was and is evidence indisputable to that effect. Being on the scene at Elkhorn, the editor of this paper KNOWS that there was money in plenty and whiskey flowing like water. Just exactly who is responsible for this is for the grand jury to determine. Todd County Times.

Same over here in Butler, Brother. Let her rip, nobody cares. —For to be defeated after we have whooped up the boys so long, and voted her straight and torn our old shirts to tatters for "our" party, puzzles the will and makes us roll out the dollars to our old floater friends rather than to be honest and suffer the risk of defeat. For who would run the risk of being defeated, and get no job; no office, and have to go to work and earn an honest living?

The thought of these terrible things make us rather a thief and violator of our country's laws than be forever turned away from the public crib and never office get again.

After the Fight.

It is better to lose with a conscience than

To win by a trick unfair;
It is better to lose, when you've been —Whatever the prize was—square.

Than to claim the victory, and
And the shame of the blunders by
And know down deep in your innermost soul

A cheat you must live and die.

Who wins by a trick may take a prize,

And at first may think it sweet;

But many a day in the future lies

When he'll wish he had more meat;

For the man who lost shall be glad at heart

And walk with his head up high,

While his conqueror knows he must play the part

Of a cheat and a living lie.

The prize seems fair when the fight is on

But save it is truly won

You will hate the thing when the crowds are gone

For it stands for a false dead dove.

And it's better you never should reach your goal

Than never cease to try

At the price of knowing down in your soul

That your glory is all a lie.
