ALTON B. Parker made a stirring address to the members of the American Bar association the other day on the subject of state rights. Alton B. Parker—Seems to us we have heard that name before.

GOVERNOR Magoun is about to issue a decree compelling the Cubans to observe sanitary conditions. That is a wise government. Cleanliness is essential to self-respect, and self-respect is essential to self-government.

THE officers of the Coast Defense Artillery don't like the suggestion that their branch of the service be transferred to the Navy. They don't like the prospect of becoming what Kipling calls "just a breedin' Horan's prostitute," soldier and sailor too.

SECRETARY WILSON is making an extended tour of the western states with the purpose of learning the extent to which his efforts to benefit the farmer have been successful, and how best to direct these efforts in the future in order that they may accomplish the greatest good.

SOMEONE has started the story that General Clarence Edwards will be Secretary of War if Taft is elected President. This is only a "hot weather" story! The man who would be Taft's Secretary of War is that hard working Nebraskan, Chase E. Magoon, now Provisional Governor of Cuba.

A WESTERN Senator writing to a friend, says, "The corporations, here as elsewhere, are all against Roosevelt, and are doing all they can to get him to propose a continuation of his policies." That is the whole story of the political activities of the present year, and the effort to "down Roosevelt" and his policies, will not end until after the next election.

He Stands Pat.

The center shots from the President's Pilgrim speech were as follows:

"I want to say as to desirable and undesirable citizens that the same remains true as when the words were spoken. I stand pat."

"Certain socialistic leaders propose to redistribute the world's goods by refusing to think and energy and industry their proper superiority over folly and idleness and sullen envy."

"Too rich man who, with hard arrogance, declines to consider the rights and the needs of those who are less well off, and the poor man who exclaims or indulges in envy and hatred of those who are better off, are alike alien to the spirit of our national life."

"No individual, no corporation, obeying the law, has anything to fear from this administration."

"In the last six years we have shown that there is no individual and no corporation so powerful that he or it stands above the possibility of punishment under the law."

"There is unfortunately, a certain number of our fellow countrymen who seem to accept the view that unless a man can be proved guilty of some particular crime he shall be counted a good citizen, no matter how pernicious his doctrines or his practices."

"But there is a growing determination that no man shall amass a great fortune by special privilege, by chicanery and wrongdoing, so far as it is in power of legislation to prevent, and that the fortune when amassed shall not have a business use that is anti-social."

"There is no objection in the minds of this people to any man's earning any amount of money if he does it honestly and fairly, if he gets it as the result of special skill and enterprise as a reward of ample service actually rendered."

"Our aim is to help every honest man, every honest corporation, and our policy means in its ultimate analysis a healthy and prosperous expansion of business activities of honest business men and honest corporations."

"I earnestly hope the legislation which deals with the regulation of corporations engaged in interstate business will also deal with the rights and interests of the wage workers employed by them."

"In any government, such as that in which we are engaged, nothing is more necessary than sanity, than the rule to be led into extremes by the advocates of the ultra course on either side."

"There exists no more sordid and unlovely type of social development than a plutocracy, for there is a popular unwholesomeness in a social and governmental ideal where wealth by and of itself is held up as the greatest good."

"One of the favorite devices of those who are really striving to prevent the enforcement of those laws is to clamor for action of such severity that it cannot be undertaken because it will be certain to fail if tried."

"We should certainly not adopt any new scheme for grappling with them (new conditions) merely because it is new and untried; but we cannot afford to shrink from grappling with them because they can only be grappled with by some new scheme."

TAFT

The Choice of the Central West.

The Chicago Tribune, the recognized Roosevelt organ of the Central West, has completed a poll of 1,700 editors, congressmen and chairmen of states of the Central West. These questions were submitted to each of them, and almost all of them submitted answers. The questions asked were:

"Do you approve of the President's aggressive policy?"

"Do you prefer a candidate of the progressive school as his successor?"

"Whom do you prefer?"

That Central West is well satisfied with the policy which John D. Rockefeller has so vigorously denounced is evident from the fact that the 700 men interviewed on the subject favored the policies of the President and favored the nomination of a candidate who will follow along the same lines. The states to which the questions were sent were Illinois, Indiana, Michigan, Wisconsin, Minnesota, North Dakota, South Dakota, Iowa, Nebraska, Missouri, and Kansas.

In answer to the questions as to whom they preferred as the successor of President Roosevelt the votes stood as follows:

Taft 543
Roosevelt 160
Cannon 191
Hughes 184
Knox 183
Senator McMillum 89
President Roosevelt 168

Thus it is a rumor in circulation that if William J. Bryan will agree to make ex-Senator Pettigrew his campaign manager, and will as President further agree to direct the activities of his Department of Justice away from those trusts which contribute to his campaign fund, he can have unlimited money with which to gratify his ambition to occupy the White House. The rumor may or may not be true, but somehow it sounds like Tom Pettigrew."

Don't move out of your precinct now or you will lose your vote in November. You know you want to vote for Gus Wilson for Governor.

It is a weakness, or a virtue, of President Roosevelt that he always wants his information as nearly first hand as he can possibly get it. For instance, he asked Secretary Root last summer, to visit the countries of South America in the belief that a more intimate acquaintance and a closer familiarity with the problems which confront our neighbors to the South would make for more friendly relations and greater success in any diplomatic negotiations which may arise. The same purpose actuated the President when he asked Secretary Taft to go to the Philippines and open the Philippine assembly. It is the hope of the President and of Secretary Taft that the Filipinos may gradually be educated to a point where they can successfully govern themselves. To that end they have been granted an assembly, every one of which may be voted.

We hope to make this a most enthusiastic and interesting meeting. Everybody invited to attend.

J. F. MILLER, Vice Pres.

The Residents of Aunt Mandy Moore Badly

Last Monday morning about 9 o'clock the alarm of fire was given on our street and the closing of the house cart rang out in the distance. It was soon learned that the house of Aunt Mandy Moore was on fire. A large crowd hurried to the scene. A fire hose was quickly connected to the fire plug at G. W. Jones' corner and a stream was soon pouring on the flames which had by this time completely enveloped the entire roof of the building and seemed a hopeless task of the fire fighters to save the building. Expressman on every hand were to the effect that it "was no use to try." The building was gone, but the valiant volunteers firemen composed chiefly of W. T. Kittenger, Wm. Queen, C. D. C. Rose, N. W. Gore, Titus Tyler, Gena Harrell, C. W. Morehead, Wilden Rynes, Geo. Harold, Frank Minnis, George Taylor, Ira Leach, Wm. Sharer, T. W. Sweet, John Eberhart, Gao, Dabbs, last but not least Ad Davis, climbed on the porch and all over and through the building and played the hose vigorously over the flames. After awhile it was seen that they were making headway against the flames and hope of saving the main part of the building sprung up. After hard work of nearly an hour the flames were extinguished. The entire roof was destroyed but the main building was saved. The entire contents of the building were considerably damaged.

The loss is estimated at about $150 on building and $50 on contents, both insured. The fire is supposed to have originated from the kitchen fire.

Judge Carson was its first President and Jerome Moore its first Cashier, each of whom stood faithfully at his post of duty until removed by death, and their pictures now adorn the walls of its President's room, in honor of their memory. Judge Carson, was succeeded by Senator Jas. W. Martin, and Jerome Moore was succeeded by Jas. M. Carson, who were each in turn succeeded by the present officials: W. A. Holm as President, and J. E. Dooley as Cashier, who have each been officially connected with said institution for nearly twenty years and who were last Monday reelected to said position. It will be seen from the foregoing that among the best men of the country have given it their endorsement and support. Its growth has been continual, substantial, onward and upward until to day it has a capital and surplus of $70,000, and a permanent place of business training in one of the best schools in New York, and came direct from there to his desk in the bank and has stood at his post continually ever since with comparatively little or no lost time, in twenty years. Mr. J. C. Finer, the present bookkeeper, took up his work there about three years ago, and with wonderful rapidity has mastered every detail of the work, and has already equipped himself for the highest honors as a business man.

Since its organization the bank has paid to stock holders in dividends $85,476 and is now paying all expenses and taxes on the stock and paying 8 per cent dividend. During the panic of 1893 when many other banks were shaking and falling, it stood like a stone wall and was complimented by Louisville bankers for its stability and firmness. It is almost universally known in the country, if you want money, that you can always get it at the old bank. Its career is certainly and honor to the county as well as its management and we take pride in saying these few words of the Ben and Noble.
